DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

The Mukwonago democratic convention have nominated Daniel Wells, Jr., the present incumbent, for congress in the first district. He was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 21 votes to H. T. Sanders 12, and 5 scattering. The platform has not yet been made public, but Mr. Wells is said to have pledged himself by letter, against the Nebraska law and in favor of the repeal of the fugitive slave law.

In the third district the democrats have re-nominated John B. Macy. Resolutions were offered in the convention endorsing the Nebraska law, but they were laid on the table. After the adjournment of the convention, however, a reorganization was effected with C. D. Robinson of the Green Bay Advocate as president, and strong Nebraska resolutions were passed. The nomination itself will not be over satisfactory to a portion of the party, and this split on the platform will ensure our democratic friends in that district a still more pleasant time.

The Janesville Gazette don't know whether the whig county convention intends a fusion with the hunkers, as both conventions met on the same day, but hopes it will present an end and out whig ticket, and sustain it. It will try the republican party this time, and support its ticket if it likes it, but evidently looks back with longing to the leaks and onions of Egypt.—Free Democrat.

Since the editor of the Free Democrat failed, through the preference of the whigs of the first district for Judge Spooner, to get a nomination for congress, a large part of his professed good nature for his whig brethren seems to have been dissipated. He is evidently ill-disposed towards them, showing his teeth whenever he finds occasion, and don't seem to understand how their support of the republican candidates can be rendered where there is no personal reasons to induce it. Perhaps he will yet find out that there elsewhere as true and effective opponents of the slavery interests as himself, and that it is not necessary to vote for an ambitious demagogue to prove the sincerity of their professions.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—The election of state officers in Pennsylvania takes place next week Tuesday. In 1851, when the contest was between Bigler and Johnston, 366,480 votes were polled, and Bigler's majority was 8,465.—The total vote of Philadelphia was 46,762, and of that Gov. Johnston had a majority of 2,759. We shall be able to tell better what the result will be next week after the votes are counted.

NEW YORK CITY, Saturday Evening, Sept. 30, 1854.
"WHAT ARE YOUR POLITICS?" I have none. I care for measures more than men, but think some little may depend upon the men. Something in free depends upon the goats." BAILEY IN HIS TESTOS.

MESSENGERS EDITORS:—I had almost eschewed politics, and had almost made up my mind to meddle no more with so muddy a subject, but I received the Gazette of last Saturday, and after reading of the nomination of C. C. Washburne for the second congressional district, (which nomination I heartily approve) and the call for a Republican county convention, my mind went back to old times in Rock county, when your friend, the writer, worked hard for the good old whig cause, and the querie which heads this letter came up in my mind and I asked myself in Bailey's words, "What are your politics?"

We say that people and that things do change; it is ourselves who change, says the poet, and yet I feel unchanged in my political principles. For myself I still love whig principles. I still believe in protection to American manufactures, and still hate with a perfect hatred, slavery and slavery propagandists. And yet it is exceedingly difficult for one to place himself upon any particular platform, or class himself amongst the members of any distinct party.

Since the reins of executive power and patronage have fallen into the despicable hands of that most contemptible, small man, Franklin Pierce, it is very difficult for one to place himself in a position in any particular rank or company.

The whigs, so called, have been divided into silver grays, woolly-heads, etc., and the democrats, so called, are divided and sub-divided into so many factions that it is almost an impossibility to say which is the old line and which the dissenters or factionists. With such an incongruous state of things before one, it is not improper or insane for one to pause and inquire of himself earnestly and seriously, "What are my politics, and how can I best serve my country and my state in such an emergency; such an exigency as this?" Well, the word "compromise" is sadly out of repute since the little giant and his beautiful party repudiated all compromises and went for the precious humberg of "popular sovereignty." So fusion, although not very proper, is the now handy word made use of to represent the uniting of hitherto opposite parts and parties into one great whole, for the purpose of opposing the encroachments of the slave power, and more expressly to put down northern dough-faceism, or Arnold Douglassism if I may be allowed to coin an expression which conveys to the great majority of men at the north, at least the idea of the very quintessence of meanness and bitterness, as well as of perfidiousness and rank treachery. Now this unity of parts for the purpose of supporting northern principles is the great instrument to be employed in the coming struggle for the mastery, between the advocates of "the peculiar institution" and the true friends of practical liberty. Let us not disguise the true issue before the country or put off the direct responsibility that events have brought or rather thrust us into.

The practical question is narrowed down into two great principles—free states, free territories and free soil for free men; or, more slave states out of slave territories and a continuance of the slave system—not as a peculiar or local institution, belonging to each state to manage as it chooses, but as the system of the country, recognized as such, by all the states, and perforce, acquiesced in by the north. In view of this question assuming such a form, what can we freemen of the north do? I answer: Either deny our manhood and allow the cause of human slavery to be extended far and wide over our fair land, or take up our lives, as it were, in our hands and devote ourselves earnestly, constantly, wholly to the great good of forcing back the aggressive power of slavery, in every one of its protean forms. We should not feel contented to allow it any further foothold. I say press it back! press it back! Yes, if it take years of constant, faithful, political labor. Our hope is in pressing it back into its old bed—its old and filthy lair.

Now to do this, requires organization upon one great and broad platform, under one main and fundamental principle. Free soil and unrelenting hostility to negro slavery and its extension over another foot of American territory. We stand upon this platform and we should take all proper measures to carry out these principles. This should be the only test of unity.—United or fused in these things, all other minor questions should be laid aside, yes sacrificed, (if needs be) for the sake of harmony and unity on the great question at issue. South and slavery, or north and freedom. These are the great questions. "What are your politics?"

Reader—are you a freeman?—do you feel that "A day, an hour of virtuous liberty is worth a whole eternity of bondage?" Then halt not between two opinions. Come with us. How can each man who reads this letter, apply its teachings to actual life and the present time, and how can he be practically a northern man with northern principles?

Reader, vote for no man, be he whig, loco, free soiler, (so called) democrat or what not, who is not pledged ANTI-NEBRASKA. The close, practical application to you, old friends of Rock county, is this. Select such men to represent you in your senate and assembly districts as you know not to be dough-faces or traitors. If I was in your county and your district as of old, I should lay aside all old party predilections and support such a man as David L. Mills, who has come out from that old rotten party, yeilded democratic, and is a true republican. He deserves the nomination to the assembly from Janesville, Rock and Fulton, and every true free-soiler and whig should support him, or some such a man from principle.

In your own city, there is your old tried friend, Wm. A. Lawrence, who was run two years ago for the senate, and only defeated by the free-soil and democratic joint vote, by about a score. He ought to have the nomination this fall, and not only the nomination but the hearty support of every man in the district who is not an office holder or a follower of the Benedict Arnold of 1854. There is another man in upper Rock whom I for one would like to see sent to the assembly, from the Union, Porter and Magnolia district, and he is David F. Sayre, a young man every way worthy of the place, and I know, all right upon the engrossing question of the day.

But I must hold up. Let us all remember the lines of Southey, that it were easier "To haul the rooted mountain from its base, Than force the yoke of slavery upon men Determined to be free."

Your friend, AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

School Reform—No. 1.

[Concluded.]

QUESTION 6th. Should corporal punishment ever be inflicted at school or at home. If so, on what occasions, and how often?

Here, the ablest of teachers differ in opinion. My own opinion is, that there are some children that are so hardly managed at home that the red and reproof giveth wisdom" when judiciously applied at school. Under the progressive spirit of the age, it is to be hoped that the time is not far distant when the rod will be entirely dispensed with. No general answer can be given as to what offence should meet with corporal punishment. This must be left to the discretion of the parent or teacher.

QUESTION 7th. What should be the frame of mind as manifested by the gesture, voice, countenance, and tone, in punishing a child, at home, or at school?

It should always be serious and affectionate, determined; yet mild and pitiful, to convince the child if possible, that your love remains the same—in short that you "love the offender, though you hate the offense."

QUESTION 8th. Where and how should the young spend their evenings?

At home in the presence of their parents or some adult person, in light labor or study. Let the recreations be always in the day time. The practice of allowing children to go home with their school-mates, to spend the night away from their parents, is most ruinous and destructive. Conscientious and judicious parents will not allow it.

QUESTION 9th. Are children entirely safe as long as they associate with any immoral companions?

By no means. No one can tell how early the young mind can be captivated and lead astray by bad associates.

QUESTION 10th. What should be done by parents in regard to the vicious children of their neighbors?

No complete rule can be given in answer to this question. Positive prohibition of all intercourse will be found to be the best preventative if this is enforced by proper authority.

QUESTION 11th. What combined effort of a neighborhood or town can be entered on, to effect juvenile reform?

This is certainly a hard question to answer. It would certainly be better for each father and mother to reform their own children at home. The next best way is for the people of a town or district to form a society for the purpose of juvenile reform, the same as any other of the reforms of the day. Let the subject be thoroughly discussed, and the right kind of a spirit may be entertained, and much good may be done.

QUESTION 12th. What shall be done with an exceedingly perverse and apparently irreclaimable child at home, or at school?

Whenever such a case exists, pursue the course as pointed out in answer to question 7.

QUESTION 13th. How shall the young be reformed or prevented from the shocking vice of profanity?

Nothing but a thorough religious effort will succeed in this case. The young mind must be convinced of the hatefulness of this vice, and of the high and holy character of the being sinned against. Then by withdrawing the child from the company of the profane, and setting a good example himself, he may hope to succeed.

QUESTION 14th. How shall children be kept from the use of any vulgar language, or the reception of any low or vulgar ideas?

This may be almost impossible; but the course pointed out in answer to questions 11th and 13th will be found sufficient.

QUESTION 15th. How shall delicacy of feeling be cultivated; and propriety of conduct be maintained between the sexes at school, and also in the neighborhood generally?

This is certainly the hardest question to answer of any. To accomplish the object of promoting moral purity, is well worthy the philanthropist and the christian. Our whole scheme of education, both family and school, is rudely at fault. Frankness and sincerity must be taught and enforced upon the young mind at all times. Children must be taught delicacy between themselves and their own sex, before they can be between themselves and the opposite. In other words, that any actions or words improper before the other sex, should be before their own.

Then educate together, encourage a free social intercourse—prohibit by all means all privacies, and the work will, to a great extent, be accomplished.

The ward caucuses in Chicago, to elect delegates to the county convention which was to send delegates to the congressional convention, met last Monday evening, and had "a good time" generally. Wentworth, and his rowdies beat the administration and its rowdies, and when the county convention met the latter took an "independent" twist and appointed a second set of delegates. Wentworth's convention resolved in favor of the Baltimore platform of 1852. The congressional convention met at Aurora yesterday.

MESSENGERS EDITORS:—In your paper of the 4th inst., you acknowledged yourselves to be in something of a quandary as to the object of calling a whig convention, and of its being called on the same day and hour as the democratic.

Now, in the first place, the whig convention is not in your paper called at the same hour—the democratic being at 1 o'clock and the whig at 2 o'clock P. M., of same day. Again, the call for appointment, or election of delegates to whig convention, is on the same day, same hour and place, as that of the republican party.—Why not suppose that a "fusion" is anticipated on these preliminary meetings, as well as jump at the awful bugbear of a coalition of the whigs and democrats.

Don't speculate, gentlemen! The whigs are awake and mean to leave their marks, to be seen now and hereafter.

The call is explicit—means just what it says, and no more. Don't become excited, we don't propose to quite exterminate, this fall, and you can remain perfectly calm and quiet.

Call on the renegade whigs already in your party to stand by the Madison platform and support the ticket nominated by the republicans without regard to consequences, and find no fault; but when you think of urging upon whigs the same thing you are fooling away your time.

We are not a very large party, perhaps, but we are men who are honest, frank, and determined. We are determined to nominate, and if possible, elect a whig county ticket, or at least make a positive rally for it.

Be frank, gentlemen, and don't be anxious about the whig convention: You were both whigs one year ago, and will, in all probability, be whigs again in two years. "Republican" is a very fair sounding name, but it cannot be sustained for any time hereafter.

Our state is about the only one in the union, which has no whig party this fall, and when we come to a presidential election, what will you do, gentlemen? Vote a whig or a democratic ticket? The whig organization is kept up in the states, generally and "republicans," as a party, are unknown.

Make your nominations support your straight ticket—make what you can of it, for the indomitable whigs are in the field.

PANZA.

NOTE.—We give place to the above with the sole remark that there is a good deal of bluster about it; that we still hope a pure whig ticket will be nominated, that we may see how many more or less votes it will get than it did last fall, when we, as publishers of a whig paper, endeavored to hold the party together, and well knowing that some of the "indomitable," "wide-awake whigs" represented to be engaged in this movement, do vote this fall for a pure whig ticket, it will be doing differently from what they have done heretofore when they might have effectually encouraged and countenanced those who then desired to preserve the whig organization.

As a matter of fact, "Panza" is mistaken on one point. We did not say the whig was called at the same hour as the democratic convention.

Some of the anti-Barstow faction were crowing last week over the appointment of several delegates from Waukesha county to the Mukwonago congressional convention. This week, the editor of the Plaindealer, who goes fully for "Barstow and the balance," comes back at the tickled gentleman in this style:

"Six out of the eight votes of this county, if not seven of them, will be cast for a new man, in obedience to the requirements and expectations of the people; and what is more, we can tell the Noonan and News clique, that neither Mr. Wells or any other man, if known to be a friend and supporter of Pierce and his administration, or Noonan, can be elected to congress from this district, this fall."

There is music ahead in the first as well as other districts. If the Barstow faction is in, the Noonan clique is out; and so vice versa. Go on, good airs; we are impartial spectators, and intend to decide your quarrel by relieving you both of the prize for which you are fighting.

A report being in circulation, that Mr. Dodge was the author of the article signed "Andiebanus," we explicitly contradict it: Mr. D. seems to be in the hands of good and capable friends, and injustice should not be done him by such a report.

RESURRECTION BY WATER.—A few days since on Bowman creek, two miles from Benton station, on the Covington and Lexington railroad, a number of men were engaged in digging a well; and making a blast in the bottom of the well (about 30 feet deep) a man descended, and fell apparently lifeless. A second man went down to his assistance and also fell. A third descended, and he too was struck with the noxious gas. To all appearance the three men were dead. It happened a man was going by with a cask of water on a sled, and recollecting that he had heard it said that a stream of water poured into a well would dispel the noxious gas, he drove up and poured the water from the cask into the well. The effect was instantaneous. The men were immediately revived and taken out with every prospect of complete recovery. The fact is important and ought to be generally known.—Louisville Courier, 20th.

MORE REBELLION IN ILLINOIS.—The power over the democratic party of Illinois is rapidly passing from Senator Douglas. The Alton Courier announces:

The Democracy have become aroused, and Judge Douglas is to be met at Springfield, by several of the first minds in the state, men who would honor any state or nation, and no less giants than himself, and there in reply to his vindication of himself and the Nebraska measure, and its being made a test of democracy, a full discussion of its merits will take place.

RAILROAD CONVENTION.—A railroad convention was held in Chicago, August 25th. The Illinois Central, Chicago and Mississippi, Michigan Central, N. A. and Salem, Galena and Chicago, Chicago and Rock Island, Chicago and Aurora, and Illinois and Wisconsin roads were represented.

Resolutions were passed, 1st. In favor of abolishing the system of free passes. 2d. Against issuing annual or general passes. 3d. No letter of introduction to be given entitling any person to the courtesy of a free pass. 4th. Discontinuing half-fare passes to clergymen except such as reside on the lines of the roads. 5th. To carry no delegates to conventions at half fare except to religious, educational or agricultural conventions. 6th. To charge half fare for children between 4 and 12 years of age—all over 12 full fare. A committee was also appointed to arrange the classification of freight, and a resolution passed that in all cases where roads cross each other at grade, all engines shall be brought to a full stop before entering upon such crossing, and shall not start until the conductor gives the proper signal for it to do so.—Chicago Tribune.

ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 19th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday 10th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of effecting a thorough organization of the Republican party in their towns or wards, and of appointing delegates to a county convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY, the 12th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. M., to nominate a county ticket.

The towns and wards will be entitled to representation in the county convention as follows:—to wit:

L. P. HANNEY, J. H. BIRD, J. S. COLLEY, G. H. WILLISTON, A. HASKINS, PETER SCHMIDT, J. DAWSON, E. VINCENT, County Committee.

17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.
At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

Rock County Whig Convention.
The whigs of Rock county who are willing to be known as men who have not lost their identity with the party, ("their personal character, political associations and private conduct," being vouched for, inasmuch as they are whigs) are requested to meet at their respective places of holding their elections, on Tuesday Oct. 10th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of appointing delegates to a whig county convention, hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on the 14th day of Oct. inst. at 10 o'clock P. M., to nominate a whig county ticket.

By order of Committee.

Assembly Convention—4th District.
The Republicans of the Assembly District composed of the towns of Spring Valley, Newark, Avon, Magnolia, Plymouth, Union and Porter, are requested to meet in their respective towns on the 10th inst., and appoint the usual number of delegates to a convention to meet at the school house at SPRING VALLEY CORNERS, on SATURDAY, the 25th inst., at 1 o'clock P. M. to nominate a candidate for the Assembly.

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.
The Mukwonago democratic convention have nominated Daniel Wells, Jr., the present incumbent, for congress in the first district. He was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 21 votes to H. T. Sanders 12, and 5 scattering. The platform has not yet been made public, but Mr. Wells is said to have pledged himself by letter, against the Nebraska law and in favor of the repeal of the fugitive slave law.

In the third district the democrats have re-nominated John B. Macy. Resolutions were offered in the convention endorsing the Nebraska law, but they were laid on the table. After the adjournment of the convention, however, a reorganization was effected with C. D. Robinson of the Green Bay Advocate as president, and strong Nebraska resolutions were passed. The nomination itself will not be over-satisfactory to a portion of the party, and this split on the platform will ensure our democratic friends in that district a still more pleasant time.

The Janesville Gazette don't know whether the whig county convention intends a fusion with the hunters, as both conventions meet the same day, but hopes it will present an out and out whig ticket, and sustain it. It will try the republican party this time, and support its ticket if it likes it, but evidently looks back with longing to the leaks and onions of Egypt—Free Democrat.

Since the editor of the Free Democrat failed, through the preference of the whigs of the first district for Judge Spooner, to get a nomination for congress, a large part of his professed good nature for his whig brethren seems to have been dissipated. He is evidently ill-disposed towards them, showing his teeth whenever he finds occasion, and don't seem to understand how their support of the republican candidates can be rendered where there is no personal reasons to induce it. Perhaps he will yet find out that there elsewhere as true and effective opponents of the slavery interests as himself, and that it is not necessary to vote for an ambitious demagogue to prove the sincerity of their professions.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—The election of state officers in Pennsylvania takes place next week Tuesday. In 1851, when the contest was between Bigler and Johnston, 305,460 votes were polled, and Bigler's majority was 8,465. The total vote of Philadelphia was 46,763, and of that Gov. Johnson had a majority of 2,769. We shall be able to tell better what the result will be next week after the votes are counted.

New York City, Saturday Evening, Sept. 30, 1854.

"What are your politics?" I have none, I care for measures more than men, but I think some little may depend upon the men. Something in fires depends upon the route. BAILEY in his Vestra.

Messrs. Editors:—I had almost eschewed politics, and had almost made up my mind to meddle no more with so muddy a subject, but I received the Gazette of last Saturday, and after reading of the nomination of C. C. Washburne for the second congressional district, (which nomination I heartily approve) and the call for a Republican county convention, my mind went back to old times in Rock county, when your friend, the writer, worked hard for the good old whig cause, and the quare which heads this letter came up in my mind and I asked myself in Bailey's words, "What are your politics?"

We say that people and that things do change; it is ourselves who change, says the poet, and yet I feel unchanged in my political principles. For myself I still love whig principles. I still believe in protection to American manufactures, and still hate with a perfect hatred, slavery and slavery propagandists. And yet it is exceedingly difficult for one to place himself upon any particular platform, or class himself amongst the members of any distinct party.

Since the reins of executive power and patronage have fallen into the despicable hands of that most contemptible, small man, Franklin Pierce, it is very difficult for one to place himself in a position in any particular rank or company.

The whigs, so called, have been divided into silver grays, woolly-heads, etc., and the democrats, so called, are divided and sub-divided into so many factions that it is almost an impossibility to say which is the old line and which the dissenters or factionists. With such an incongruous state of things before one, it is not improper or insane for one to pause and inquire of himself earnestly and seriously. "What are my politics, and how can I best serve my country and my state in such an emergency, such an exigency as this?" Well, the word "compromise" is sadly out of repute since the little giant and his beautiful party repudiated all compromises and went for the precious humber of "popular sovereignty." So fusion, although not very proper, is the now handy word made use of to represent the uniting of hitherto opposite parts and parties into one great whole, for the purpose of opposing the encroachments of the slave power, and more expressly to put down northern dough-facism, or Arnold Douglassism if I may be allowed to coin an expression which conveys to the great majority of men at the north, at least the idea of the very quintessence of meanness and bitterness, as well as of perfidiousness and rank treachery. Now this unity of parts for the purpose of supporting northern principles is the great instrument to be employed in the coming struggle for the mastery, between the advocates of "the peculiar institution" and the true friends of practical liberty. Let us not disguise the true issue before the country or put off the direct responsibility that events have brought or rather thrust us into.

The practical question is narrowed down into two great principles—free states, free territories and free soil for free men; or, more slave states out of slave territories and a continuance of the slave system—not as a peculiar or local institution, belonging to each state to manage as it chooses, but as the system of the country, recognized as such, by all the states, and perforce, acquiesced in by the north. In view of this question assuming such a form, what can we freemen of the north do? I answer: Either deny our manhood and allow the cause of human slavery to be extended far and wide over our fair land, or take up our lives, as it were, in our hands and devote ourselves earnestly, constantly, wholly to the great good of forming back the aggressive power of slavery, in every one of its Protean forms. We should not feel contented to allow it any further foothold. I say press it back! press it back!! Yes, if it take years of constant, faithful, political labor. Our hope is in pressing it back into its old bed—its old and filthy lair.

Now to do this, requires organization upon one great and broad platform, under one main and fundamental principle. Free soil and unrelenting hostility to negro slavery and its extension over another foot of American territory. We stand upon this platform and we should take all proper measures to carry out those principles. This should be the only test of unity.—United or fused in these things, all other minor questions should be laid aside, yes sacrificed, (if needs be) for the sake of harmony and unity on the great question at issue. South and slavery, or north and freedom. These are the great questions. "What are your politics?" Reader—are you a freeman?—do you feel that "A day, an hour of virtuous liberty is worth a whole eternity of bondage?"

Then halt not between two opinions. Come with us. How can each man who reads this letter, apply its teachings to actual life and the present time, and how can he be practically a northern man with northern principles?

Reader, vote for no man, be he whig, loco, free soiler, (so called) democrat or what not, who is not pledged ANTI-NEBRASKA. The close, practical application to you, old friends of Rock county, is this. Select such men to represent you in your senate and assembly districts as you know not to be dough-faces or traitors. If I was in your county and your district as of old, I should lay aside all old party predilections and support such a man as David L. Mills, who has come out from that old rotten party, yeilded democratic, and is a true republican. He deserves the nomination to the assembly from Janesville, Rock and Fulton, and every true freesoiler and whig should support him, or some such a man from principle.

In your own city, there is your old friend, friend, Wm. A. Lawrence, who was run two years ago for the senate, and only defeated by the freesoil and democratic vote, by about a score. He ought to have the nomination this fall, and not only the nomination but the hearty support of every man in the district who is not an office holder or a follower of the Benedict Arnold of 1854. There is another man in upper Rock whom I for one would like to see sent to the assembly, from the Union, Porter and Magnolia district, and he is, David F. Sayre, a young man every way worthy of the place, and I know, all right upon the congressing question of the day.

But I must hold up. Let us all remember the lines of Southey, that it were easier "To hunt the rooted acorn from its base, Than force the yoke of slavery upon men Determined to be free."

Your friend, AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

School Reform—No. 1.

QUESTION 6th. Should corporal punishment ever be inflicted at school or at home. If so, on what occasions, and how often?

Here, the ablest of teachers differ in opinion. My own opinion is, that there are some children that are so hardly managed at home that "the rod and reproof giveth wisdom" when judiciously applied at school. Under the progressive spirit of the age, it is to be hoped that the time is not far distant when the rod will be entirely dispensed with. No general answer can be given as to what offence should meet with corporal punishment. This must be left to the discretion of the parent or teacher.

QUESTION 7th. What should be the frame of mind manifested by the gesture, voice, countenance, and tone, in punishing a child, at home, or at school?

It should always be serious and affectionate, determined, yet mild and pitiful, to convince the child if possible, that your love remains the same—in short that you "love the offender, though you hate the offense."

QUESTION 8th. Where and how should the young spend their evenings?

At home in the presence of their parents or some adult person, in light labor or study. Let the recreations be always in the day time. The practice of allowing children to go home with their school-mates, to spend the night away from their parents, is most ruinous and destructive. Conscientious and judicious parents will not allow it.

QUESTION 9th. Are children entirely safe as long as they associate with any immoral companions?

By no means. No one can tell how early the young mind can be captivated and lead astray by bad associates.

QUESTION 10th. What should be done by parents in regard to the vicious children of their neighbors?

No complete rule can be given in answer to this question. Positive prohibition of all intercourse will be found to be the best preventative if this is enforced by proper authority.

QUESTION 11th. What combined effort of a neighborhood or town can be entered on, to effect juvenile reform?

This is certainly a hard question to answer. It would certainly be better for each father and mother to reform their own children at home. The next best way is for the people of a town or district to form a society for the purpose of juvenile reform, the same as any other of the reforms of the day. Let the subject be thoroughly discussed, and the right kind of a spirit may be entertained, and much good may be done.

QUESTION 12th. What shall be done with an exceedingly perverse and apparently irremediable child at home, or at school?

Whenever such a case exists, pursue the course as pointed out in answer to question 7.

QUESTION 13th. How shall the young be reformed or prevented from the shocking vice of profanity?

Nothing but a thorough religious effort will succeed in this case. The young mind must be convinced of the holiness of this vice, and of the high and holy character of the being sinned against. Then by withdrawing the child from the company of the profane, and setting a good example himself, he may hope to succeed.

QUESTION 14th. How shall children be kept from the use of any vulgar language, or the reception of any low or vulgar ideas?

This may be almost impossible; but the course pointed out in answer to questions 11th and 13th will be found sufficient.

QUESTION 15th. How shall delicacy of feeling be cultivated, and propriety of conduct be maintained between the sexes at school, and also in the neighborhood generally?

This is certainly the hardest question to answer of any. To accomplish the object of promoting moral purity, is well worthy the philanthropist and the christian. Our whole scheme of education, both family and school, is rudely at fault. Frankness and sincerity must be taught and enforced upon the young mind at all times. Children must be taught delicacy between themselves and their own sex, before they can be between themselves and the opposite. In other words, that any actions or words improper before the other sex, should be before their own.

Then educate together, encourage a free social intercourse—prohibit by all means all privacies, and the work will, to a great extent, be accomplished.

QUESTION 16th. The ward caucuses in Chicago, to elect delegates to the county convention which was to send delegates to the congressional convention, met last Monday evening, and had "a good time" generally. Wentworth, and his rowdies beat the administration and its rowdies, and when the county convention met the latter took an "independent" twist and appointed a second set of delegates. Wentworth's convention resolved in favor of the Baltimore platform of 1852. The congressional convention met at Aurora yesterday.

Messrs. Editors:—In your paper of the 4th inst., you acknowledged yourselves to be in something of a quandary as to the object of calling a whig convention, and of its being called on the same day and hour as the democratic.

Now, in the first place, the whig convention is not in your paper called at the same hour—the democratic being at 1 o'clock and the whig at 2 o'clock P. M., of same day. Again, the call for appointment, or election of delegates to whig convention, is on the same day, same hour and place, as that of the republican party.—Why not suppose that a "fusion" is anticipated on the part of the whigs with the republicans at these preliminary meetings, as well as jump at the awful bugbear of a coalition of the whigs and democrats.

Don't speculate, gentlemen! The whigs are awake and mean to leave their marks, to be seen now and hereafter.

The call is explicit—means just what it says, and no more. Don't become excited, we don't propose to quite exterminate, this fall, and you can remain perfectly calm and quiet.

Call on the renegade whigs already in your party to stand by the Madison platform and support the ticket nominated by the republicans without regard to consequences, and find no fault; but when you think of urging upon whigs the same thing you are feeling away your time.

We are not a very large party, perhaps, but we are men who are honest, frank, and determined. We are determined to nominate, and if possible, elect a whig county ticket, or at least make a positive rally for it.

Be frank, gentlemen, and don't be anxious about the whig convention. You were both whigs one year ago, and will, in all probability, be whigs again in two years. "Republican" is a very fair sounding name, but it cannot be sustained for any time hereafter.

Our state is about the only one in the union, which has no whig party this fall, and when we come to a presidential election, what will you do, gentlemen? Vote a whig or a democratic ticket? The whig organization is kept up in the states, generally and "republicans," as a party, are unknown.

Make your nominations support your straight ticket—make what you can of it, for the indomitable whigs are in the field.

PANZA.

NOTE.—We give place to the above with the sole remark that there is a good deal of bluster about it; that we still hope a pure whig ticket will be nominated, that we may see how many more or less votes it will get than it did last fall when we, as publishers of a whig paper, endeavored to hold the party together, and well knowing that some of the "indomitable," "wide-awake whigs" represented to be engaged in this movement, do vote this fall for a pure whig ticket, it will be doing differently from what they have done heretofore when they might have effectively encouraged and countenanced those who then desired to preserve the whig organization.

Some of the anti-Barstow faction were crowing last week over the appointment of several delegates from Waukesha county to the Mukwonago congressional convention. This week, the editor of the Plaindealer, who goes fully for "Barstow and the balance," comes back at the tickled gentleman in this style:

"Six out of the eight votes of this county, if not seven of them, will be cast for a new man, in obedience to the requirements and expectations of the people; and what is more, we can tell the Noonan and News circle, that neither Mr. Wells or any other man, if known to be a friend and supporter of Pierce and his administration, or Noonan, can be elected to congress from this district, this fall."

There is music ahead in the first as well as other districts. If the Barstow faction is in, the Noonan clique is out; and so vice versa. Go on, good sirs; we are impartial spectators, and intend to decide your quarrel by relieving you both of the prize for which you are fighting.

A report being in circulation, that Mr. Dodge was the author of the article signed "Audiobamus," we explicitly contradict it. Mr. D. seems to be in the hands of good and capable friends, and injustice should not be done him by such a report.

RESURRECTION BY WATER.—A few days since on Bowman creek, two miles from Benton station, on the Covington and Lexington railroad, a number of men were engaged in digging a well; and making a blast in the bottom of the well (about 30 feet deep) a man descended and fell apparently lifeless. A second man went down to his assistance and also fell. A third descended, and he too was struck with the noxious gas. To all appearance the three men were dead. It happened a man was going by with a cask of water on a sled, and recollecting that he had heard it said that a stream of water poured into a well would dispel the noxious gas, he drove up and poured the water from the cask into the well. The effect was instantaneous. The men were immediately revived and taken out with every prospect of complete recovery. The fact is important and ought to be generally known.—Louisville Courier, 20th.

MORE REBELLION IN ILLINOIS.—The power over the democratic party of Illinois is rapidly passing from Senator Douglas. The Atton Courier announces:

The Democracy have become aroused; and Judge Douglas is to be met at Springfield by several of the first minds in the state, men who would honor any state or nation, and no less giants than, himself, and there in reply to his vindication of himself and the Nebraska measure, and its being made a test of democracy, a full discussion of its merits will take place.

We are informed that Judge Trumbull, Judge Broese, Col. McClelland, Judge Palmer, Col. E. D. Taylor and others, will be there and reply to Judge Douglas, and he will find his foemen tried democrats, lovers of the Baltimore platform, and opposed to all slavery agitation, giants in intellect, and worthy of his steel.

RAILROAD CONVENTION.—A railroad convention was held in Chicago, August 28th. The Illinois Central, Chicago and Mississippi, Michigan Central, N. A. and Salem, Galena and Chicago Central, and Rock Island, Chicago and Aurora, and Illinois and Wisconsin roads were represented.

Resolutions were passed.

1st. In favor of abolishing the system of free passes.

2d. Against issuing annual or general passes.

3d. No letter of introduction to be given entitling any person to the courtesy of a free pass.

4th. Discontinuing half-fare passes to clergymen except such as reside on the lines of the roads.

5th. To carry no delegates to conventions at half fare except to religious, educational or agricultural conventions.

6th. To charge half fare for children between 4 and 12 years of age—all over 12 full fare.

A committee was also appointed to arrange the classification of freight, and a resolution passed that in all cases where roads' engines crossed at grade, all engines shall be brought to a full stop before entering upon such crossing, and shall not start until the conductor gives the proper signal for it to do so.—Chicago Tribune.

texture of the finest and most delicate hair.

VARIETY AND BEAUTY OF COLOR.
 My shade can be produced from a Light Brown to a Black; restoring Gray Hair to its original color, matching Light or Red Hair with any desired dark shade, which will not Fade, Croak, or wash out, leaving the hair soft and in appearance perfectly natural.

CONVENIENCE.
 This Dye is put up in one bottle and in this way the inconvenience of having two or three separate bottles is avoided. It is very perplexing, and it is quite in vain to attempt to keep the hair and scalp so intimate as to the proper time for applying these coloring Liquids always depends on the hair.

CHEAPNESS, &c.
 This is the cheapest Liquid Hair Dye in use, the bottling renders doubtless that of any other manufacturer, and being sold at half the price, it will not color the skin, proper attention being paid to the ample directions accompanying each bottle.

For valuable preparation can be found in "James' Pills" at the "Temple of Health" and "Manufacturers' Directory."

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 15th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday 10th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. 17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county, comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

Rock County Whig Convention.

The whigs of Rock county who are willing to be known as men who have not lost their identity with the party, (their personal character, political associations and private conduct,) being vouched for, inasmuch as they are whigs) are requested to meet at their respective places of holding their elections, on Tuesday Oct. 10th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of appointing delegates to above called convention, hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, the 14th day of Oct. inst. at 10 o'clock P. Assembly Convention—4th District.

The Republicans of the Assembly District composed of the towns of Spring Valley, Newark, Avon, Magnolia, Plymouth, Union and Porter, are requested to meet in their respective towns on the 10th inst., and appoint the usual number of delegates to a convention to meet at the school house at SPRING VALLEY CORNERS, on SATURDAY, the 25th inst., at 1 o'clock, P. E. C. SMITH,
JOHN HOWE,
Committee.

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

The Mukwonago democratic convention have nominated Daniel Wells, Jr., the present incumbent, for congress in the first district. He was nominated, on the first ballot, receiving 21 votes to H. T. Sanders 12, and 5 scattering. The platform has not yet been made public, but Mr. Wells is said to have pledged himself by letter, against the Nebraska law and in favor of the repeal of the fugitive slave law.

In the third district the democrats have nominated John B. Macy. Resolutions were offered in the convention endorsing the Nebraska law, but they were laid on the table. After the adjournment of the convention, however, a reorganization was effected with C. D. Robinson of the Green Bay Advocate as president, and strong Nebraska resolutions were passed. The nomination itself will not be over satisfactory to a portion of the party, and this split on the platform will ensure our democratic friends in that district a still more pleasant time.

The Janesville Gazette don't know whether the whig county convention intends a fusion with the hunkers, as both conventions meet the same day, but hopes it will present an out and out whig ticket, and sustain it. It will try the republican party this time, and support its ticket if it likes it, but evidently looks back with longing to the leaks and onions of Egypt.—Free Democrat.

Since the editor of the Free Democrat failed, through the preference of the whigs of the first district for Judge Spooner, to get a nomination for congress, a large part of his professed good nature for his whig brethren seems to have been dissipated. He is evidently ill-disposed towards them, showing his teeth whenever he finds occasion, and don't seem to understand how their support of the republican candidates can be rendered where there is no personal reasons to induce it. Perhaps he will yet find out that there elsewhere as true and effective opponents of the slavery interests as himself, and that it is not necessary to vote for an ambitious demagogue to prove the sincerity of their professions.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—The election of state officers in Pennsylvania takes place next week Tuesday. In 1851, when the contest was between Bigler and Johnston, 300,160 votes were polled, and Bigler's majority was 5,465.—The total vote of Philadelphia was 40,702, and that of Gov. Johnston had a majority of 2,760. We shall be able to tell better what the result will be next week after the votes are counted.

"WHAT ARE YOUR POLITICS?" I have been asked for measure more than men, but think something little may depend upon the man. Something in fires depends upon the goat's tail. BAILEY IN HIS FUSTUS.

Messrs. Editors:—I had almost eschewed politics, and had almost made up my mind to meddle no more with so muddy a subject, but I received the Gazette of last Saturday, and after reading of the nomination of C. C. Washburne for the second congressional district, (which nomination I heartily approve) and the call for a Republican county convention, my mind went back to old times in Rock county, when your friend, the writer, worked hard for the good old whig cause, and the quire which heads this letter came up in my mind and I asked myself in Bailey's words, "What are your politics?"

We say that people and that things do change; it is ourselves who change, says the poet, and yet I feel unchanged in my political principles. For myself I still love whig principles. I still believe in protection to American manufactures, and still hate with a perfect hatred, slavery and slavery propagandists. And yet it is exceedingly difficult for one to place himself upon any particular platform, or class himself amongst the members of any distinct party.

Since the reins of executive power and patronage have fallen into the despicable hands of that most contemptible, small man, Franklin Pierce, it is very difficult for one to place himself in a position in any particular rank or company.

The whigs, so called, have been divided into silver grays, woolly-heads, etc., and the democrats, so called, are divided and sub-divided into so many factions that it is almost an impossibility to say which is the old line and which the dissenters or factionists. With such an incongruous state of things before one, it is not improper or insane for one to pause and inquire of himself earnestly and seriously. "What are my politics, and how can I best serve my country and my state in such an omorgene, such an exigency as this?" Well, the word "compromise" is sadly out of repudiate since the little giant and his beautiful party repudiated all compromises and went for the precious humbug of "popular sovereignty." So fusion, although not very proper, is the now handy word made use of to represent the uniting of hitherto opposite parts and parties into one great whole, for the purpose of opposing the encroachments of the slave power, and more expressly to put down northern dough-facism, or Arnold Douglasism if I may be allowed to coin an expression which conveys to the great majority of men at the north, at least the idea of the very quintessence of meanness and bitterness, as well as of perfidiousness and rank treachery. Now this unity of parts for the purpose of supporting northern principles is the great instrument to be employed in the coming struggle for the mastery, between the advocates of "the peculiar institution" and the true friends of practical liberty. Let us not disguise the true issue before the country or put off the direct responsibility that events have brought or rather thrust us into.

The practical question is narrowed down into two great principles—free states, free territories and free soil for free men; or, more slave states out of slave territories and a continuance of the slave system—not as a peculiar or local institution, belonging to each state to manage as it chooses, but as the system of the country, recognized as such, by all the states, and perforce, acquiesced in by the north. In view of this question assuming such a form, what can we freemen of the north do? I answer: Either deny our manhood and allow the cause of human slavery to be extended far and wide over our fair land, or take up our lives, as it were, in our hands and devote ourselves earnestly, constantly, wholly to the great good of forcing back the aggressive power of slavery, in every one of its Protean forms. We should not feel contented to allow it any further foothold. I say press it back! press it back!! Yes, if it take years of constant, faithful, political labor. Our hope is in pressing it back into its old bed—its old and filthy lair.

Now to do this, requires organization upon one great and broad platform, under one main and fundamental principle. Free soil and unrelenting hostility to negro slavery and its extension over another foot of American territory. We stand upon this platform and we should take all proper measures to carry out these principles. This should be the only test of unity.—United or fused in these things, all other minor questions should be laid aside, yes sacrificed, (if needs be) for the sake of harmony and unity on the great question at issue. South and slavery, or north and freedom. These are the great questions. "What are your politics?"

Reader—are you a free man?—do you feel that "A day, an hour of virtuous liberty is worth a whole eternity of bondage?"

Then halt not between two opinions. Come with us. How can each man who reads this letter, apply its teachings to actual life and the present time, and how can he be practically a northern man with northern principles?

Reader, vote for no man, be he whig, loco, free soiler, (so called) democrat or what not, who is not pledged anti-NEBRASKA. The close, practical application to you, old friends of Rock county, is this. Select such men to represent you in your senate and assembly districts as you know not to be dough-faces or traitors. If I was in your county and your district as of old, I should lay aside all old party predilections and support such a man as David L. Mills, who has come out from that old rotten party, yeilded democratic, and is a true republican. He deserves the nomination to the assembly from Janesville, Rock and Fulton, and every true free-soiler and whig should support him, or some such a man from principle.

In your own city, there is your old tried, friend, Wm. A. Lawrence, who was run two years ago for the senate, and only defeated by the free-soil and democratic joint vote, by about a score. He ought to have the nomination this fall, and not only the nomination but the hearty support of every man in the district who is not an office holder or a follower of the Benedict Arnold of 1854. There is another man in upper Rock whom I for one would like to see sent to the assembly, from the Union, Porter and Magnolia districts, and he is, David F. Sayre, a young man every way worthy of the place, and I know, all right upon the engrossing question of the day.

But I must hold up. Let us all remember the lines of Southey, that it were easier "To have the rooted mountain from its base, Than force the yoke of slavery upon men Determined to be Free."

Your friend, AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

For the Janesville Gazette.

School Reform—No. 1.

QUESTION 6th. Should corporal punishment ever be inflicted at school or at home. If so, on what occasions, and how often?

Here, the ablest of teachers differ in opinion. My own opinion is, that there are some children that are so hardly managed at home that "the rod and reproof giveth wisdom" when judiciously applied at school. Under the progressive spirit of the age, it is to be hoped that the time is not far distant when the rod will be entirely dispensed with. No general answer can be given as to what offence should meet with corporal punishment. This must be left to the discretion of the parent or teacher.

QUESTION 7th. What should be the frame of mind as manifested by the gesture, voice, countenance, and tone, in punishing a child, at home, or at school?

It should always be serious and affectionate, determined, yet mild and pitiful, to convince the child if possible, that your love remains the same—in short that you "love the offender, though you hate the offence."

QUESTION 8th. Where and how should the young spend their evenings?

At home in the presence of their parents or some adult person, in light labor or study. Let the recreations be always in the day time. The practice of allowing children to go home with their school-mates, to spend the night away from their parents, is most ruinous and destructive. Conscientious and judicious parents will not allow it.

QUESTION 9th. Are children entirely safe as long as they associate with any immoral companions?

By no means. No one can tell how early the young mind can be captivated and lead astray by bad associates.

QUESTION 10th. What should be done by parents in regard to the vicious children of their neighbors?

No complete rule can be given in answer to this question. Positive prohibition of all intercourse will be found to be the best preventative if this is enforced by proper authority.

QUESTION 11th. What combined effort of a neighborhood or town can be entered on, to effect juvenile reform?

This is certainly a hard question to answer. It would certainly be better for each father and mother to reform their own children at home. The next best way is for the people of a town or district to form a society for the purpose of juvenile reform, the same as any other of the reforms of the day. Let the subject be thoroughly discussed, and the right kind of a spirit may be entertained, and much good may be done.

QUESTION 12th. What shall be done with an exceedingly perverse and apparently irremediable child at home, or at school?

Whenever such a case exists, pursue the course as pointed out in answer to question 7.

QUESTION 13th. How shall the young be reformed or prevented from the shocking vice of profanity?

Nothing but a thorough religious effort will succeed in this case. The young mind must be convinced of the hatefulness of this vice, and of the high and holy character of the being sinned against. Then by withdrawing the child from the company of the profane, and setting a good example himself, he may hope to succeed.

QUESTION 14th. How shall delinquency of feeling be cultivated, and propriety of conduct be maintained between the sexes at school, and also in the neighborhood generally?

This is certainly the hardest question to answer of any. To accomplish the object of promoting moral purity, is well worthy the philanthropist and the christian. Our whole scheme of education, both family and school, is rudely at fault. Frankness and sincerity must be taught and enforced upon the young mind at all times. Children must be taught delicacy between themselves and their own sex, before they can be between themselves and the opposite. In other words, that any actions or words improper before the other sex, should be before their own.

Then educate together, encourage a free social intercourse—prohibit by all means all privacies, and the work will, to a great extent, be accomplished.

The ward caucuses in Chicago, to elect delegates to the county convention which was to send delegates to the congressional convention, met last Monday evening, and had "a good time" generally. Wentworth, and his rowdies beat the administration and its rowdies, and when the county convention met the latter took an "independent" twist and appointed a second set of delegates. Wentworth's convention resolved in favor of the Baltimore platform of 1852. The congressional convention met at Aurora yesterday.

Messrs. Editors:—In your paper of the 4th inst., you acknowledged yourselves to be in something of a quandary as to the object of calling a whig convention, and of its being called on the same day and hour as the democratic.

Now, in the first place, the whig convention is not in your paper called at the same hour—the democratic being at 1 o'clock and the whig at 2 o'clock P. M., of same day. Again, the call for appointment, or election of delegates to whig convention, is on the same day, same hour and place, as that of the republican party.—Why not suppose that a "fusion" is anticipated on the part of the whigs with the republicans at these preliminary meetings, as well as jump at the awful bugbear of a coalition of the whigs and democrats.

Don't speculate, gentlemen! The whigs are awake and mean to leave their marks to be seen now and hereafter.

The call is explicit—means just what it says, and no more. Don't become excited, we don't propose to quite exterminate, this fall, and you can remain perfectly calm and quiet.

Call on the renegade whigs already in your party to stand by the Madison platform and support the ticket nominated by the republicans without regard to consequences, and I find no fault; but when you think of urging upon whigs the same thing you are fooling away your time.

We are not a very large party, perhaps, but we are men who are honest, frank, and determined. We are determined to nominate, and if possible, elect a whig county ticket, or at least make a positive rally for it.

Be frank, gentlemen, and don't be anxious about the whig convention. You were both whigs one year ago, and will, in all probability, be whigs again in two years. "Republican," is a very fair sounding name, but it cannot be sustained for any time hereafter.

Our state is about the only one in the union, which has no whig party this fall, and when we come to a presidential election, what will you do, gentlemen? Vote a whig or a democratic ticket? The whig-organization is kept up in the states, generally and "republicans," as a party, are unknown.

Make your nominations support your straight ticket—make what you can of it, for the indomitable whigs are in the field.

PANZA.

NORX.—We give place to the above with the sole remark that there is a good deal of bluster about it; that we still hope a pure whig ticket will be nominated, that we may see how many more or less votes it will get than it did last fall when, we, as publishers of a whig paper, endeavored to hold the party together, and well knowing that some of the "indomitable," "wide-awake whigs" represented to be engaged in this movement, do vote this fall for a pure whig ticket, it will be doing differently from what they have done heretofore when they might have effectively encouraged and countenanced those who then desired to preserve the whig organization.

As a matter of fact, "Panza" is mistaken on one point. We did not say the whig was called at the same hour as the democratic convention.

Some of the anti-Barstow faction were crowing last week over the appointment of several delegates from Waukesha county to the Mukwonago congressional convention. This week, the editor of the Plaindealer, who goes fully for "Barstow and the balance," comes back at the tickled gentleman in this style:

"Six out of the eight votes of this county, if not seven of them, will be cast for a new man, in obedience to the requirements and expectations of the people; and what is more, we can tell the Noonan and Nows clique, that neither Mr. Wells or any other man, if known to be a friend and supporter of Pierce and his administration, or Noonan, can be elected to congress from this district, this fall."

There is music ahead in the first as well as other districts. If the Barstow faction is in, the Noonan clique is out; and so vice versa. Go on, good sire; we are impartial spectators, and intend to decide your quarrel by relieving you both of the prize for which you are fighting.

A report being in circulation, that Mr. Dodge was the author of the article signed "Audubamus," we explicitly contradict it. Mr. D. seems to be in the lands of good and capable friends, and injustice should not be done him by such a report.

RESURRECTION BY WATER.—A few days since on Bowman creek, two miles from Benton station, on the Covington and Lexington railroad, a number of men were engaged in digging a well; and making a blast in the bottom of the well (about 30 feet deep) a man descended and fell apparently lifeless. A second man went down to his assistance and also fell. A third descended, and he too was struck with the noxious gas. To all appearance the three men were dead. It happened a man was going by with a cask of water on a sled, and recollecting that he had heard it said that a stream of water poured into a well would dispel the noxious gas, he drove up and poured the water from the cask into the well. The effect was instantaneous. The men were immediately revived and taken out with every prospect of complete recovery. The fact is important and ought to be generally known.—Louisville Courier, 20th.

MORE REBELLION IN ILLINOIS.—The power over the democratic party of Illinois is rapidly passing from Senator Douglas. The Alton Courier announces:

The Democracy have become aroused, and Judge Douglas is to be met at Springfield by several of the first minds in the state, men who would honor any state or nation, and no less giants than himself, and there in reply to his vindication of himself and the Nebraska measure, and its being made a test of democracy, a full discussion of its merits will take place.

We are informed that Judge Trumbull, Judge Breese, Col. McClelland, Judge Palmer, Col. E. D. Taylor and others, will be there and reply to Judge Douglas, and he will find his foemen tried democrats, lovers of the Baltimore platform, and opposed to all slavery agitation, giants in intellect, and worthy of his steel.

RAILROAD CONVENTION.—A railroad convention was held in Chicago, August 28th. The Illinois Central, Chicago and Mississippi, Michigan Central, N. A. and Salem, Galena and Chicago, Chicago and Rock Island, Chicago and Aurora, and Illinois and Wisconsin roads were represented.

Resolutions were passed, to-wit: 1st. In favor of abolishing the system of free passes.

2d. Against issuing annual or general passes. 3d. No letter of introduction to be given entitling any person to the courtesy of a free pass. 4th. Discounting half-fare passes to clerymen except such as reside on the lines of the roads.

5th. To carry no delegates to conventions at half fare except to religious, educational or agricultural conventions.

6th. To charge half fare for children between 4 and 12 years of age—all over 12 full fare. A committee was also appointed to arrange the classification of freight, and a resolution passed that in all cases where roads cross each other at grade, all engines shall be brought to a full stop before entering upon such crossing, and shall not start until the conductor gives the proper signal for it to do so.—Chicago Tribune.

Jyl OCHTIVIE & BARROWS.Something New!!*MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power.
It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the quality of the case. To purchasers in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing $500.
Messrs. Austin & Co., Janesville, Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.
